

Navy Intends to Issue Old Town Campus Revitalization Solicitation for Master Developer

As the Navy prepares to issue a competitive solicitation in late 2022 to identify a potential master developer for revitalization of the Naval Base Point Loma Old Town Campus (OTC), the Navy encourages developers and interested parties to sign up for the project mailing list and text message alerts (or update their contact information) to learn about doing business with the Navy and to receive the latest communications regarding the competitive development solicitation opportunity.

The Navy will work with the selected master developer on multiple options for potential private development of the site, while continuing to evaluate the feasibility of a NAVWAR-only development funded by traditional military construction methods.

Tips for Interested Proposers:

- Register with SAM.gov, the U.S. Government's official system for contracting opportunities.
- Sign up for the OTC project mailing list to receive notices about the project and opt-in for text message alerts (or update your contact information).

Visit the Project Website!

The Navy will post information about the competitive solicitation process on its project website: NAVWAR-Revitalization.com/development. Be sure to visit the website for updates, sign up for the project mailing list (or update your contact information), and register on SAM.gov for potential contracting opportunities. SAM.gov is the official U.S. Government system for contracting opportunities.

STAY INFORMED

The Navy will continue to update the public as this project progresses. Visit NAVWAR-Revitalization.com for the latest information. Stay informed by signing up for the project mailing list.
