The image is an aerial photograph of the Naval Base Point Loma Old Town Campus. Two specific areas are highlighted with red outlines and labeled: Site 1, located in the upper left portion of the main campus area, and Site 2, located in the lower left portion. The main campus area is a large, irregularly shaped plot of land containing several large, rectangular buildings with reddish-brown roofs. A red pin is placed on one of these buildings, labeled 'NBPL OTC'. The campus is bordered by a multi-lane highway on the right and a residential neighborhood with smaller houses and trees on the left. The overall scene is captured from a high angle, showing the layout of the base and its surrounding environment.
